GRADING

Content Plan – 150 points, beginning Week 10
Students will work in teams of three to develop a plan for a new show for broadcast, cable, radio, streaming, DVD, social media or other platform. Each group will produce a content plan; a content sample; and a class presentation. In addition, each student will complete a Self-Evaluation. A more detailed explanation of this assignment can be found on the blog: http://intrototv.wordpress.com.
Midterm Exam – 100 points
The Midterm Exam will be a multiple choice, short answer, short essay exam given in-class. The Midterm Exam will cover all lectures, readings and blog posts up to the date of the exam. DATE: Thursday, April 10.

King Tide Day Flood Crowdsourcing Project – 50 points
Students will participate in a crowdsourced reporting project to document flooding on or near the week of March 7 or April 4. See the class blog for ways to participate. DUE Tuesday, April 19

Magazine Article – 100 points
Each student will write an 800-1200 word article on some aspect of the television industry. The article should be written as if it would be published in a trade or technology magazine like Broadcasting and Cable, TVNewser (http://www.mediabistro.com/tvnewser/), Variety or Wired Magazine. A more detailed explanation of this assignment can be found on the class blog: http://intrototv.wordpress.com. DUE DATE: April 21

Final Exam – 100 points
The Final Exam will be a multiple choice, short answer, short essay exam given during the Final Exam Period. The Final Exam is cumulative, ad will cover all lectures, readings and blog posts throughout the semester. PLEASE NOTE: Students who arrive more than 30 minutes late to the exam will not be allowed to take it. DATE: Tuesday, May 3.

MAXIMUM POINTS POSSIBLE – 500

Final Grade Scale
All grading will be done on a point system, with a letter grade assigned at the end of the term based on points earned from a total of 450 points. Grades of Incomplete will be given only for acceptable written medical reasons. You can calculate your final score as follows:

Below 65% or below 325 points: F

Extra Credit – Maximum 25 points
There will be several opportunities for students to earn extra credit.

COURSE POLICIES

Deadlines - Successfully meeting deadlines is an essential part of being a media professional. Late work will only be accepted in the case of a documented emergency or if circumstances are cleared with me prior to the due date. Late work submitted without prior approval will result in substantial grade reduction. Work submitted more than 2 weeks late will not be accepted.

Academic Honesty - As FIU students, you are expected to strictly follow the honor code regarding academic honesty. Florida International University outlines your responsibilities as follows: Florida International University is a community dedicated to generating and imparting knowledge through excellent teaching and research, the rigorous and respectful exchange of ideas and community service. All students should respect the right of others to have an equitable opportunity to learn and honestly to demonstrate the quality of their learning. Therefore, all students are expected to adhere to a standard of academic conduct, which demonstrates respect for themselves, their fellow students, and the educational mission of the University. All students are deemed by the University to understand that if they are found responsible for academic misconduct, they will be subject to the Academic Misconduct procedures and sanctions, as outlined in the Student Handbook. Misconduct includes: Cheating – The unauthorized use of books, notes, aids, electronic sources; or assistance from another person with respect to examinations, course assignments, field service reports, class recitations; or the unauthorized possession of examination papers or course materials, whether originally authorized or not. Plagiarism – The use and appropriation of another’s work without any indication of the source and the representation of such work as the student’s own. Any student who fails to give credit for ideas, expressions or materials taken from another source, including internet sources, is responsible for plagiarism. Any students who fail to meet these expectations will receive an “F” for the course grade and will be reported to the Chair of the Department, as well as the Dean of the School.

Classroom Behavior - Use of cell phones, PDAs or MP3 players during class is prohibited. That includes texting. I will ask you to leave if you violate this rule. Computers may be used only if you sit across the back wall. Lectures may be recorded with prior approval. If you are caught using your cell phone or any other banned device during a quiz or exam, you will be in violation of the university’s policy on academic dishonesty.

Special Needs - If you need accommodation based upon a disability under the terms of the Americans With Disabilities Act or Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, please discuss your needs with me before the end of the second week of the semester.

Original Material - All work in this class is assumed to be yours, and composed of your original material, or material that you have permission to use. Research and sourcing is fundamental to story construction. Quote attribution is basic. If you use images, audio or video that you did not create, you must GET PERMISSION FROM THE INSTRUCTOR AHEAD OF TIME and attribute them accordingly. Failure to cite material amounts to plagiarism, and you will fail the course.

Factual Errors and Spelling Errors - Student work must be free of errors of fact. Each factual error, or spelling error, will result in a 5-point deduction from the project final grade. Meticulous research, careful copyediting, and a thorough proofreading of final work, will usually catch any errors before the project is submitted for grading.
Blackboard - This course will utilize Blackboard. Students are expected to log in regularly for announcements.

Class Blog - The instructor will use a WordPress blog to post course notes, and students are expected to link their completed projects to the class blog.

Constructive Criticism - In this class students will be required to present their work to the class and explain their production choices. Students will constructively critique each other's work. This communal display and critique of work will help produce a competitive environment wherein you push yourself to produce high quality work. However this situation should also be a cooperative one, where students help each other with challenges and ideas.
